Glacier to Yellowstone provides a comprehensive Montana camping and fishing guide stretching between Montana's two great national treasures. The book divides up the area between the two parks in three sections: northwest, western and southwestern. Fifteen maps are provided along with these famous rivers: Beaverhead River, Big Hole River, Bitterroot River, Blackfoot River, Clark Fork River, Flathead River, Gallatin River, Kootenai River, Madison River, Thompson River, Swan River, Yellowstone River and the Yaak River. Fishing in both parks is covered as well as directions and information to over 50 creeks and lesser known rivers. If you like to fish back country lakes, select one of over a 100 offerings from Glacier to Yellowstone.

The book is replete with photographs, and detailed information is provided for fishing specific waters. Icon symbols and mileage marker designations provide quick reference while you are traveling. A section, "Accommodations and Services" is provided for each of the three regions.
