Bruno's far from the dream man that Martine wants in her life. Sure, he's dashing and attractive and a banking whiz, but he's also arrogant and bullheaded. The most important man in her life is Charles, a widower coworker who's slowly losing his drive to make it through each day. A night of regrets and unintended events leaves Bruno in Martine's company, but when they "merge their businesses," Martine walks away with a lifetime of debt...and a new child on the way. Bruno may have won her body, but can he win her soul?
