The No Place Cat C. S. Adler

For a year, Tess has been trying to get used to her new stepfamily, but it just isn't working. When a school project that she labored over is accidentally destroyed by her stepsister, and her dad and stepmom don't seem to care at all, Tess has finally had it. She decides to run away and go live with her mom on the other side of Tucson. On the long walk there she acquires an unexpected companion: a gray-striped cat that follows her along the desert road. But nothing goes as planned after Tess and the cat finally reach Mom's condo. Her mother seems more concerned with herself than with Tess, and she has a definite aversion to cats. Luckily for Tess, her new feline companion proves to be a reassuring presence as she struggles to face some difficult truths about herself and her family.

In this moving and realistic story, the unconditional love of an animal helps to heal a wounded teen.
