With flashing green eyes, bouncing blond curls, and a bodacious body, no one would suspect this petite bombshell was studying to be a conservation officer or that at home awaited her two small children.

Enter Lachlan MacGregor, a divorced conservation officer whose daughter's death has left his private life a closed topic. A chance meeting in a crowded hallway starts a series of events rolling out of Annah and Lachlan's control. Annah had forgotten she was a woman with needs.
