I Know What You Read Keara Kevay

Ever wonder what some people might think if they knew what you read? Do you tuck that naughty novel inside a plain-Jane cover, or keep your e-reader turned at an angle so no one can see the dirty words? Jade always errs on the side of caution when it comes to sex. She's never been risqué, but when she learns the thrill of reading erotica at work, things quickly change. She finds a note that says: I know what you read. Now she's in trouble; someone has discovered her secret—and he wants to watch. It's a blackmail scheme the likes of which she would have never imagined. Erotic stories are found on her desk with notes that say if she doesn't sit there and read them, they will pop-up somewhere else in the office—with her name on them. She thinks she knows who is tormenting her; now all she has to do is get him to say, "I know what you read."
