As she catches up on family news and friendships, Laci finds life in small-town New Mexico much more appealing than the pace of the city. Renewing a friendship with her high school crush isn't bad either. But can she give up the business she's worked so hard to build? Eric Mitchell is doing fine as he raises his son alone. Even so, he longs for what's missing in his family-the love of a wife and mother. The one woman he's interested in just might desert them, and he and his son have had enough pain.
