Featuring an array of dwellings selected from around the world - from the glass skyscrapers of Saint Petersburg, to the buildings of Rome, to the sunny shores of California - The Big Book of Interior Design is entirely devoted to the harmonious relationships between the many design elements that populate and inter-connect our private spaces.

Places that are a mirror of the soul, that reflect individual taste and character but are an inward expression of the outside world and the forces that shape it.

A complete and beautifully made book featuring an elegant graphic layout, that does not just systematize, by way of a critical analysis based on style, the many stylistic inspirations that make up the daily scenario of living; rather its aim is to offer practical ideas to the architect, the designer, the family wishing to renovate their home and to all of those in search of inspired interiors.

Modern, Vintage, Minimal, Surrealist, Pop, Mediterranean and Oriental styles are given a critical and historical analysis; there is also a focus on the key objects of a particular style, not just the functional pieces such as lamps, mirrors, carpets and sofas, but also decorative objects and accessories. A universe of objects that revolve around the physiognomy of a characteristically identified space.

As a pupil exactly feel bored to be able to reading. If their teacher expected them to go to the library as well as to make summary for some book, they are complained. Just little students that has reading's internal or real their interest. They just do what the teacher want, like asked to go to the library. They go to generally there but nothing reading very seriously. Any students feel that reading through is not important, boring in addition to can't see colorful photos on there. Yeah, it is to be complicated. Book is very important to suit your needs. As we know that on this period of time, many ways to get whatever we want. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this The Big Book of Interior Design can make you sense more interested to read.
