Extinction II - Il crepuscolo (The Tube Exposed) (Italian Edition) Gianluca D'Aquino

ROMANZO BREVE (77 pagine) - ZOMBIE - L'alba è passata. Quello che si profila rischia di essere il crepuscolo dell'umanità. In uno scenario che inizia a delinearsi in tutta la sua catastrofica essenza, non rimangono che residue speranze a cui potersi ancora aggrappare per il perpetuarsi di quel che resta del genere umano.

Dopo giorni di marcia nella desolazione di quel che rimane, si fa largo nell'animo di Ksenija, Darrell, Vance e Joshua la consapevolezza di essere testimoni del crepuscolo dell'umanità. Nulla lascia più sperare che possa esserci ancora salvezza nell'apocalisse. Solo la forza e la determinazione di Ksenija, sebbene messe a dura prova e sempre meno salde, possono spingere oltre il confine della logica il cammino dei superstiti. Lei sa che c'è ancora qualcosa oltre quel confine. Qualcosa che forse non è soltanto un compito assegnatole da un oscuro mandante. Qualcosa che vale la sua stessa vita.

Gianluca D'Aquino, nato ad Alessandria, classe 1978, è autore di romanzi, sceneggiature e racconti, alcuni dei quali apparsi nei Gialli Mondadori ("Lettera dall'Eritrea", "Il rumore del vento", "La casa sul lago", "La quintessenza", "Il tempo delle risposte", "Al di là del tempo") e nelle antologie e collane Delos Books ("Quel che non è dato sapere", "Torino 1835" e "Extinction – L'alba", prima parte di "Extinction – Il crepuscolo"). Vincitore di numerosi premi letterari, è in pubblicazione con una trilogia epica sull'islamizzazione del mondo, a partire da ottobre 2016.
