Kitty Foyle (raggi) (Italian Edition) Christopher Morley

Indipendente e coraggiosa, Kitty Foyle è la tipica donna in carriera americana. Lavora per la bizzarra Delphine Detaille, creatrice di un famoso profumo, e condivide la casa con altre ragazze, grandi chiacchierone, fumatrici e bevitrici di caffè. In Kitty coesistono l'ansia e la frenesia di New York e la mentalità piccolo borghese del Midwest, le voglie del nascente consumismo e le preoccupazioni che accompagnarono il crollo della Borsa nel 1929. Ma quanto le è costato emanciparsi e seguire i propri desideri di donna? Per Kitty è arrivato il momento di riflettere su ciò che ha perduto e su ciò che ha trovato durante la sua vita. L'infanzia passata a occuparsi del burbero padre irlandese, l'abbandono degli studi, poi l'arrivo nella metropoli, il lavoro, la passione per gli abiti alla francese e per i cocktail dai nomi altisonanti. Ma un posto speciale è riservato a Wyn, un gentleman dal tipico portamento inglese che accavalla le gambe in modo inimitabile e di cui è profondamente innamorata... Christopher Morley tratteggia con spirito elegante l'America degli anni Trenta attraverso lo sguardo impertinente e scanzonato di una donna proiettata nel futuro. Pubblicato nel 1939 e presentato oggi per la prima volta in Italia nella sua versione integrale, Kitty Foyle fu subito un best seller. Una trasposizione cinematografica del 1940, che valse l'Oscar a Ginger Rogers, lanciò lo stile "alla Kitty Foyle".
