Life "below the waterline" in the cruise industry is anything but boring, but despite the ups and downs (and there are definitely a lot of both!), it is most certainly not without its rewards. "Where the Waves Take Me" is a peek into the world of a crew member on a cruise ship and her travels throughout the world. If you have ever traveled or spent time on a cruise ship yourself, you are sure to enjoy this touching, entertaining and at times hilarious glimpse at life 'below the waterline'. Reviews from previous editions: "If you've ever been onboard a cruise ship and wondered what it would be like to travel, work and live like a crew member then this is the book for you. Brookes takes pen to paper to share her heartwarming personal stories of life working onboard.[. . .] The short story format makes it easy to pick up at any place and jump in, no matter how long of a hiatus from reading. It's an engaging tale to add to your "must read" list."
