He was funny. He was prolific. He was an unparalleled musician. His name was Prince, and he was funky-and so much more.

In honor of the icon's life, People presents a celebration of the man and the purple-clad legend. With over 115 incredible photos, Celebrating Prince is a deep dive into the private world of Prince Rogers Nelson, from his childhood and inevitable rise to fame, to his outstanding discography and musical legacy. It also explores his personal life, from the women he loved, married and mentored, and the evolution of his inimitable style.

This 105-page collector's edition also delves into Prince's fight for his artistic rights and the story behind the "Love Symbol," plus his unique relationship with religion, the secret world inside Paisley Park, and all the details of his final days. Even diehard fans will learn things they knew, and hear from celebrity friends and peers about the impact Prince had on their lives.

Celebrating Prince both honors and celebrates the iconic superstar, while unearthing the many details of his life in the way that only People can.
