Mona in the Promised Land: A Novel (Vintage Contemporaries) Gish Jen

In 1968, the Chang family moves to posh Scarhill, New York, where the rhodendrons are as big as the Chang family's old bathroom, and nobody trims the forsythia into little can shapes. This takes some getting used to--especially since there's also a new social landscape, with a hot line, a mystery caller, and a temple youth group full of radical ideas. From the author of Typical American.
