Raccontare Dio: La religione come comunicazione (Saggi) (Italian Edition) Enzo Pace

Ogni religione si ritiene pura e coerente, laddove le altre sarebbero confuse, contraddittorie, primitive. Ciascuna tende a considerarsi superiore, più completa, più "vera". Un'aspirazione alla verità forse legittima, ma certamente rischiosa. Combinata con ragioni politiche, economiche e ideologiche, essa può trasformare la religione in una macchina da guerra e il confronto sulla fede in scontro di civiltà. Esistono, in realtà, molti collegamenti che rendono le religioni meno lontane tra loro di quanto si sia portati a credere. "Sotto le sacre volte", scrive Enzo Pace, "nulla si crea e nulla si distrugge". Le religioni, dunque, possono essere rappresentate come grandi sistemi di credenze stratificati, interrelati e propensi ad alimentarsi reciprocamente, perché accomunati da una struttura profonda: il potere della parola, capace di fissare o spostare i confini degli universi di senso individuali e sociali. Sorretto da una profonda conoscenza delle religioni storiche e contemporanee, questo libro traccia un percorso che - tra Oriente e Occidente, tra arcaicità e postmoderno - conduce alla scoperta dei legami in continua trasformazione fra sistemi simbolico-religiosi.
