El filósofo y el mercader. Filosofía, derecho y economía en la obra de Adam Smith (Breviarios) (Spanish Edition) Víctor Méndez Baiges Considerado como el fundador de la economía política y uno de los primeros exponentes de las ventajas del mercado, Adam Smith fue un riguroso investigador de la economía, un filósofo moral de la Ilustración y un estudioso preocupado por las relaciones entre sociedad, justicia y derecho. Este ensayo intenta conciliar esas facetas con una lectura atenta del contexto en el que nacieron sus ideas, sin emitir juicios adelantados sobre este importante pensador del siglo XVIII.
