The French Country House Christiane de Nicolay-Mazery, Bernard Touillon

Now in paperback, this book is a gorgeous celebration of warm, intimate and quintessentially French country retreats.

Epitomizing what the French call l'art de vivre (the art of good living), The French Country House is a breathtaking invitation to share the charm of these private countryside dwellings. Here are beloved places of retreat—old manor houses, small chateaux, farms, even a former convent—that, because of their great age and accumulated memories, provide endless delight for families and friends. Each country house is a treasure trove of history, with beautiful furnishings as well as family albums, faded love letters, full of old toys, fancy dresses, retired pianos, left-over brocades and wallpapers—even libraries hidden at the tops of towers. French Country House is rich with the colors, texture, and histories of these treasured homes.
